Mark Keam for Delegate Campaign Announces Its Campaign Co-Chairs and Weekly Steering Committee Meetings

Mark Keam, candidate for the House of Delegates in the 35th District, today announced twelve local Democratic Party leaders who will serve as his campaign's co-chairs. These volunteer leaders of Keam's grassroots organization will represent the campaign at various community events and meetings, as well as provide regular input and assistance to the campaign.

The following co-chairs all reside in and are active in local civic and political activities of the four Fairfax County Magisterial Districts that make up the 35th District: Burma Bochner (Providence), Rick Bochner (Providence), Linda Byrne (Providence), Harriet Hirsch (Hunter Mill), Joshua Lawton-Belous (Hunter Mill), Vincas Maciunas (Springfield), Jini Mohanty (Springfield), Kathey Moore (Hunter Mill), Diane Rice (Hunter Mill), Barbara Shearer (Sully), Scott Shearer (Sully), Karol Straub (Providence).

"I am truly honored to have the support and active assistance of these leaders as we build a strong grassroots campaign organization," said Mark Keam. "Each co-chair brings a wealth of experience and knowledge based on many local civic projects and political campaigns they have been involved with in the past. I look forward to working with them to ensure that this campaign reaches voters in every corner of the 35th District," Keam continued.

The Keam for Delegate campaign also announced today that it has been holding regular weekly Steering Committee meetings every Monday from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the campaign headquarters, located at 407 Church St, Unit J, Vienna, VA, 22180.

Informally dubbed, "Mondays with Mark," the meetings allow any potential voter or volunteer to spend an hour with the candidate and his staff to discuss issues that are important to them and to hear updates on the campaign's activities for the week. The meetings are open to the public. Press is welcome with notice to Sarah Hoptman at Sarah@MarkKeam.com.
