Mark Keam for Delegate Campaign Announces Filing of Petition Signatures and Top Placement on Ballot

Vienna –This week, Mark Keam filed all necessary paperwork required to officially become a Democratic candidate for the Virginia House of Delegates from the 35th District.

The filing included over 200 signatures collected from voters residing in all 18 precincts that make up the 35th District. “I want to thank all the voters and volunteers who helped me get on the ballot by signing my petition,” said Keam. “We are proud to have built a strong grassroots campaign in every precinct in our district.”

Assuming the State Board of Elections approves the application, Keam’s name will appear first on the ballot for this seat in the June 9th primary election. A random drawing process conducted by the Fairfax County Democratic Committee selected the order of candidates’ placement on the ballot.
